Limitations on Practice, if any

To maintain your status you must:

1. Complete 72 hours of continuing education every three years from IRS approved continuing education providers, including a minimum of 16 hours per year (2 of which must be on ethics). A public listing of approved providers is available at www.irs.gov/taxpros/ce.
2. All CE hours must be Federal tax related and taken from an IRS-approved CE Provider.
3. Go into the PTIN system and add your EA credential.
4. Renew your enrollment status every three years based on the last digit of your tax identification number (generally your social security number) at www.pay.gov. View Circular 230 Section 10.6(d) at www.irs.gov/taxpros for your specific renewal cycle.

Practice rights:

As an Enrolled Agent, you have certain rights and responsibilities as outlined in Circular 230. You have unrestricted practice rights and may represent clients before any office of the IRS regarding any matters.

Public information:

Your status as an Enrolled Agent and certain information on your application is made available to the general public as required by the Freedom of Information Act. This includes your name, business mailing address, work telephone number, and e-mail address. If you wish to update any of this information, please send a signed written request to the address or fax in the heading of this letter. Include your enrollment number, name, prior information, new information, and social security number or individual tax identification number.

Again, I offer our congratulations on your achievement as an Enrolled Agent. You can stay abreast of all tax professional issues at www.irs.gov/taxpros and join the conversation with other tax professionals at www.facebook.com/irstaxpros and www.twitter.com/irstaxpros.

Agents are required to follow the rules of Circular 230, including the requirements for Continuing Professional Education.
